

Micro Prep Instruments

For minimally invasive prep

- Provide excellent vision
- Maximum preservation of sound tooth structure
- Predictable results
- Many sizes to choose from

A world-wide leader in rotary instruments

888-566-3887
www.komet-usa.com

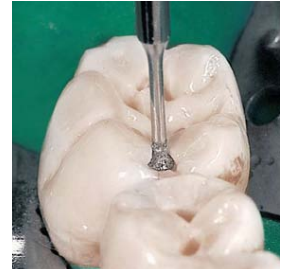

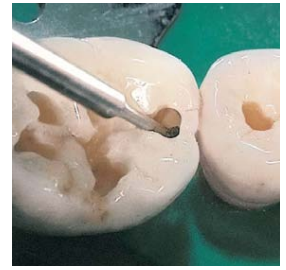

Product characteristics and advantages

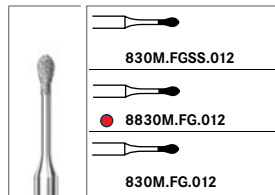

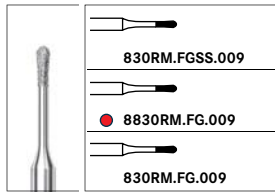

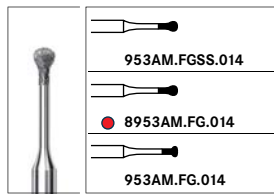

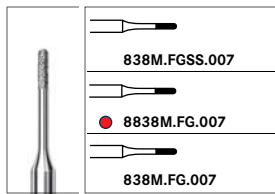

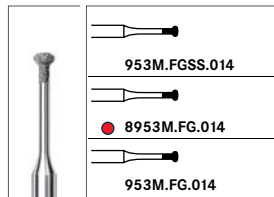

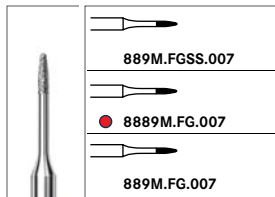

Our Micro Prep Instruments have long, slender necks made of high-tensile steel. This structure meets the new demands on the design of rotary instruments, which are due to the idea of minimally invasive preparation technique.

To meet these requirements, we have developed our Micro Prep Instruments in order to carry out precise and safe preparations in microdentistry.

Look at the big picture when the job demands a small solution.

Diamond

Additional articles available individually

